

Holocaust Memorial Day

Wednesday 27 January 2021

Theme: Be the light in darkness

Events taking place in branches which you can support

Presenter: Bangor University

Location: Teams Live Event

Time: Wednesday 27 January 2021, 1.00-2.00pm

Contact: Professor Nathan Abrams

Marie Stein (11 April 1929 - 16 July 2016) - presented by Gabriel Stein

The talk is free and open to everyone.

More information about this event here

Register here

Presenter: University of Manchester

The University of Manchester commemorates Holocaust Memorial Day with a Bogdanow Lecture in Holocaust Studies.

The Bogdanow Lecture in Holocaust Studies 2021 will be given by László Nemes, Oscar-winning director of Son of Saul (2015).

Location: This will be a free online event – see link below

Time: Wednesday 10 February 2021, 6.00pm

<http://www.manchesterjewishstudies.org/bogdanow-lectures-2021/>

Presenter: Northern Region

Northern Region will be releasing a podcast of an interview with Marek Szablewski on Wednesday morning. In the interview he is talking about the research that he has done and the stories of his family living in Warsaw before and during the war.

Marek has spoken on this subject on previous occasions. You can read about a previous talk here: <https://www.chroniclelive.co.uk/news/north-east-news/durham-university-lecturer-pieces-together-10797963>