

16 Days in 16 Ways

Activism Against Gender-Based Violence

NEWCASTLE COLLEGE EVENT for staff and students

Friday 30 November 2018

10-12 in Parsons 807

Refreshments Available

“TOGETHER WE CAN END GBV IN EDUCATION”

Welcome – Nicola Barrass, UCU Branch Women’s Officer and Anya Cook, UCU Branch Secretary and National Executive

Guests to include:

Dame Vera Baird QC - Police Commissioner Northumbria

Joyce McAndrew – UCU Regional Support Official

Clare Williams – UNISON Regional Secretary

CLlr Ann Schofield – Newcastle City Council

Cameron Hartley - Students’ Union Welfare Officer

Rachel Gibson – Head of Central Support Services

16 Days in 16 Ways is a campaign initiated by The Centre for Women's Global Leadership, a feminist human rights organisation. The activism period is 25 November (International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women) - 10 December (International Human Rights Day).